PAYING TOO MUCH TAX?

An expatriate, who came to The Netherlands from the UK, worked for a Dutch employer for five years. He never received any tax forms to complete. This particular expat was quite happy with this, but as the years went by he preferred more certainty as to his fiscal situation, so he contacted Suurmond Tax consultants. Our tax consultancy office worked out the most advantageous scenario and submitted tax forms retroactively. Instead of owing additional tax, he received refunds in excess of € 25,000!

Our tax consultants not only look at the figures, but investigate your complete circumstances and point out your personal opportunities to save tax. We will make sure the optimal tax status is applied for and check whether all tax deductions, credits, and allowances applicable to your situation, - are made use of.

You can expect a pro-active and complete service from us. This also includes checking of the tax assessments that follow and any appeals, if needed.
