Paying too much tax?

An expatriate from the UK who came to The Netherlands worked for a Dutch employer for five years.

He never received any tax forms to complete. This particular expat was quite happy with this, but as years went by he preferred more certainty as to his fiscal situation so he contacted Suurmond Tax consultants.

Our tax consultancy office worked out the most advantageous scenario and submitted tax forms retroactively. Instead of owing additional tax he received refunds in excess of € 25.000!

So if you find yourself in a similar situation, don't leave your money with the tax authorities any longer. Maybe your case is not quite as favourable as the example mentioned before, but it is certainly worthwhile to have a closer look at your tax situation. If you are unsure as to your tax position, take a step in the right direction and consult our professional team!
